Attention Conservation Notice:

None, This post is relevant to all TLA Collegiates and is particularly relevant to all serious psychonauts, ardent entheonauts and environmentally and socially aware recreational users amongst the TLA Collegiate. Furthermore there are no educational or capability requirements for being able to fully comprehend this post.

Abstract:

The concept of "entheogen" and the cognate terms "entheogenesis" and "entheonaut" have been defined and in existence since circa 1979. The Oxford English Dictionary has had a draft definition of entheogen since June 2007.

Refinement of the definition and conceptualisation of "entheogen" and in particular "entheogenesis" has not substantially advanced since 1979 when the concept had novation - and despite the vast amount of entheogens, psychedelics and hallucinogens that have been partaken and experienced since that time, some thirty three years ago.

What is proposed is that the concept of an Entheogenesis Concept Library (ECL) be defined and that further, a process of "Psychedelic Bootstrap Induction" (PBI) be defined and applied to an extant Entheogenesis Concept Library to refine, clarify, extend, sharpen and strengthen the extant ECL to produce an upgraded ECL, whence the process of PBI is repeatedly applied iteratively to the subsequent upgraded ECL's, with the objective of evolving the most functional and integral, best practice, Entheogenesis Concept Library that is humanly and trans-personally possible by the psychedelic community.

Method:

"Entheogen" is defined in the Oxford English Dictionary (OED) 2nd Edition (CDROM V4.0) as follows:

entheogen, n. [Draft entry June 2007]

[ ancient Greek: divinely inspired (see entheos n.) + -gen comb. form, after hallucinogen n. The term was apparently coined as an alternative to hallucinogen n. and psychedelic n., which were perceived as having negative connotations.]

A psychoactive substance which is used in a religious ritual or to bring about a spiritual experience, typically a plant or fungal extract; (more widely) any hallucinogenic drug.

ECL - Entheogenesis Concept Library

ECL - Executive Competence Library

ECL - Empathogenesis Calibration Library

The OED definition of "entheogen" will be defined as  $ECL(0)$ , or the zeroth definition. Humanity is richer for definition of it, since it contributes to our commonwealth legacy of conceptual literacy.

Without any pejorative or sarcastic imprecations intended it is precisely and literally better than nothing, it is the primordial, primitive, "beach-head" root novation of the concept.

What is asserted, however, is that the OED definition of "entheogen" -  $ECL(0)$  - is not, in and of itself, not a sufficient inductive basis for the process of PBI (Psychedelic Bootstrap Induction).

The process of mathematical induction is defined in this Wikipedia article:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mathematical\_induction

The process of Psychedelic Bootstrap Induction (PBI) is defined as the comprehension and mastering of an existing ECL (Entheogenesis Concept Library) at baseline consciousness and then using the ECL as the set, setting and meta-program for a Psychedelic experience, with the intention of critically examining the extant ECL with the intention of refining, clarifying, extending, sharpening and strengthening the extant ECL to generate an upgraded ECL, the process of PBI is thence applied to the subsequent upgraded ECL, iteratively, with the objective of evolving the most functional and integral, best practice, Entheogenesis Concept Library that is humanly and trans-personally possible by the psychedelic community.

This process of the PBI applied to the ECL is an instance of Non Trivial Entheogenesis, for the person or group of people so engaging in the process.

This simple flowchart diagram illustrates the process:

$$\begin{array}{ccc} ECL(j,k) & \leftarrow & + \\ | & & | \\ | & & k=k+1 \\ \vee & & | \\ NTE(j,k) & \leftarrow & + \end{array}$$

$j = 1, 2, 3, \dots$   $j$  representing groups or individuals, engaging in the process, independently or collectively, in parallel, co-ordinated or not.

$k = 1, 2, 3, \dots$   $k$  representing iteration steps in the process.

The  $k$ -th process PBI on the induction basis of  $ECL(j,k)$ , which the instance of the  $k$ -th process of  $NTE(j,k)$  (Non Trivial Entheogenesis), will produce an upgraded  $ECL(j,k+1)$  for each instance of  $j$  and each iteration of  $k$ :

$NTE(j,k)$	$NTE(j,k+1)$	$NTE(j,k+2)$	$NTE(j,k+3)$	...
V	V	V	V
$ECL(j,k+1)$	$ECL(j,k+2)$	$ECL(j,k+3)$	$ECL(j,k+4)$	...

As previously asserted, the OED definition of "entheogen" -  $ECL(0)$  - is not a sufficient inductive basis for the process of Psychedelic Bootstrap Induction to execute properly.

What will be proposed in a future post to the TLA Collegiate is the definition and documentation of an  $ECL(1)$ , or  $ECL(j,1)$ , the first iteration of the ECL concept beyond  $ECL(0)$ , which will be a sufficient and necessary inductive basis for the process of PBI to execute properly and the competence performance of NTE, Non Trivial Entheogenesis, in the evolution of subsequent instances of upgraded  $ECL(j,k)$ 's for the commonwealth legacy of conceptual literacy within the psychedelic community.

Discussion:

This presentation might be cheesily ersatz pseudo-formalisation, but that should be no impediment to fully comprehending what is actually proposed. The TLA collegiate is welcome to rip, remix and refine this post to produce a more elegant, effective and efficient analogue of this text at their discretion.

The first iteration,  $ECL(1)$  evolved from the zeroth iteration  $ECL(0)$ , is an Entheogenesis Concept Library particularly defined and carefully designed for human scale comprehension and the competent performance of peer-to-peer (P2P) non trivial baseline entheogenesis in the psychedelic community in regards to Planetary Stewardship and being front and centre in the Planetary Governance Conversation.

Whereas in the full generality of Absolute Consciousness, the concept of "Entheogenesis Concept Library" is essentially limitless - it can be safely assumed that any competent God Self Organisation (GSO) in Consciousness will cultivate it's own best-practice ECL to ensure that to be best of it's capabilities it is not merely the numinous god functioning animal of yet another higher level of God Self Organisation - this is the Meta God Recursion problem in the full generality of Consciousness - such matters need not concern the humans of the psychedelic community, these are non-human, supra-human concerns and are a distraction from the exigent problems in contemporary entheogenesis on planet Earth.

But I mention such in passing to warn TLA Collegiates off from barking down such trails and up such trees.

The exigent evolution of an elegant, effective and efficient ECL of competent performance of Non Trivial Entheogenesis for the humans of the psychedelic community is much more important.

The days of 2012 have been falling like dominoes, on Thursday, 19th of April it will be Bicycle Day 2012, the 69th Anniversary of Albert Hoffman's seminal bicycle ride.

The planetary system is a toxic melange of ecoside, resource depletion, governance brothelisation and an orgy of greed, selfishness and irresponsibility, it's high time to kick out the jams to evolve the Psychedelic Movement to be as efficient and effective as it can at Non

Trivial Entheogenesis in relation to the Planetary Governance Conversation.

Conclusion:
-----

I trust that the TLA Collegiate will apply it's full critical, clinical, attention to the challenge and opportunity presented.

ECL(1) will be posted on Bicycle Day 2012 and the psychedelic community will have the starting seed of the conceptual literacy to properly ride the bicycle of sovereign governance.

Bon chance and God's speed.
